Updates and Information

Communication between community members and our town government is an essential piece to Eleanor's success. New ideas are being developed and old ones, like this newsletter, are being brought back to ensure everyone in town can be connected with the information that they need.

The best place to hear what's happening around town is to attend council, board or committee meetings. All meetings are open to the public and everyone is welcome to attend.

Knowing that everyone may not be able to attend each meeting, the following options are available to help fill in the communication gaps:

- ◇ Online at www.EleanorWV.com
- ◇ www.Facebook.com/EleanorWV
- ◇ Newsletters like this available each month at the town hall.

For any questions or comments, please contact the town hall at 304-586-2319 or email: eleanortown@frontier.com

The "Cleanest Town in WV"

During a statewide tour in 1975, the Director of the Rehabilitation Environmental Action Program A.J Manchin visited Eleanor. The future West Virginia Secretary of State, Treasurer and State Senator declared that Eleanor was the "Cleanest Little Town in West Virginia." It's a name that many of us take pride in and it is something that we must work together to keep.

The town's Health Committee, Mayor and Police Chief team up to identify and correct properties that violate the ordinances pertaining to the general upkeep of one's property. Contact the town hall to report any area that you believe may fall in that category. We must all pitch in to make sure our little town will continue to live up to the title of West Virginia's "Cleanest Town."

2020 Calendar Contest

The Town of Eleanor's History Advisory Committee will hold a monthly contest to assemble pictures for the 2020 Town Calendar! To enter send your pictures to eleanortown@frontier.com or bring a printed copy to the town hall.
