Filling Vacancies in Officers and Employees/

With the retirement of our building inspector Tom Schmader we will be searching and making new requirements for this position. The mayor will work on this.

The ENTIRE council said they are grateful for the dedication Mr. Schmader put into this job and we could never thank him enough.

With the position of cleaning now that the position is available, council will come up with a new criteria for the job.

Councilman A. Childers will talk to Bill Stone about doing the floors in Room B again.

Miscellaneous and Unfinished Business:

The recorder asked if the mayor had talked with the funeral home that tore the cemetery up while digging for a grave. He has and weather permitting it will be taken care of.

All business being complete, the meeting adjourned at 8:35 PM.
